Characters

Morticia Addams was the matriarch of the Addams Family, a slim woman with pale skin, clad in a skin-tight black hobble gown with octopuslike tendrils at the hem. She adored her husband, Gomez, as deeply as he did her.

Wednesday Addams was a sweet-natured, innocent, happy child, largely concerned with her fearsome pet spiders. A favorite toy was her Marie Antoinette doll, which Pugsley had guillotined.

Gomez was portrayed as a naive, handsome, and successful man, although with a childlike, eccentric enthusiasm for everything he did. Though a peaceful man, he was known to be well-versed in many types of combat;

Pugsley Addams was portrayed as a deviant child with a vicious nature, shown committing deplorable acts with his sister. He had an unusual hobby of stealing road signs, which he used to adorn the walls and door of his bedroom.
