

On my ideal Christmas, my whole family is present. The house is full. It's a beautiful night and the sky is full of stars. Everyone is happy. It has lots of Christmas lights and decorations. Have lots of gifts for everyone. There are several types of food, all very delicious. I have an outfit I like, it's comfortable and tidy. My family is fraternizing with a lot of love and joy. No problems or discussions. The children are happy and playing around the house, and I am so grateful to have this Christmas magic alive.
