

The Christmas should be a special day for everyone to feel happy, even if there are problems along the way. It is an important date that unites people to celebrate together. Always give thanks, to whoever or even no one, for the year overcome and for arriving to that day. Likewise for the New Year. I hope the coming year is better in every way possible.

★ Renan Almeida Bezerril – INFO 1M