

Whale in the mountains, myth or truth?

Teacher: Cristiane de Brito.

Components:

Chayanne Araújo da Rocha.

Jamilly Firmino da Costa.

Many years ago, in a town called Serrinha, it was said that there was a whale inside the big mountain range in the town. Many residents heard a noise coming towards the mountains at night and were afraid, as they thought it was the whale that was trying to get out and with that the whole city would be flooded, some even migrated from the city out of fear.

Continuation...

However, over the years the legend has been forgotten
and so far nothing has happened, but there are still those who believe that the whale is inside to scare the residents

What about you, do you think it's myth or truth?!
