Lenda da cidade de Lagoa de Pedras

Two brothers liked to hunt in the woods of Lagoa de Pedras. They went together and, when they got there, each one followed a path. To find each other, after some time, they would whistle and follow each other's sound.

After a very good hunt, the youngest called the other. He got his answer and started running to his brother. But when he got closer, he could see where the sound was coming from. It was a giant man with only one eye in the middle of his head. This monster was eating the brother's arm and whistling just like the brother used to do. The only thing left for him to do was run away.
