History

In the lagoon of Montanhas-RN, there is a legend about a head that floats on the lagoon in the cold dawns of the year, they say that it stays floating until the time of the devil to finish (04:00), the head waits for someone to pray for it to free her, but the only way for her to free herself is to get the body of a living person. There are signs of disappearances around this lagoon, and no one knows the real reason.
